

CELEBRATING OUR OUTSTANDING LEADERS

VIDEO TRANSCRIPT

Jimmy: For me, in the CEO role, I'm not just here to drive the business. I'm here to lead change. And I'll keep striving for equality until no one has to hide a part of themselves, until everyone can be their authentic selves.

Marco: I wanted to become a Pride sponsor because there is so much more we can do for our people, but also for our communities and together with our clients—and representing that for Accenture, to be my authentic self and a leader in the firm, is what I aspire to.

Christine: We, as Accenture, stand behind these values. I am more than proud to support this journey, for Accenture and for our people.
