

ACCENTURE BALTICS

VIDEO TRANSCRIPT

00:00 This is Accenture Baltics - a company that is much more than an office space. It is a space way beyond the walls, beyond the borders even. We work with more than 280 clients in 28 countries. From Europe all the way to the US, India, and Japan.

00:16 We are a team of 2000 talented people, so it only makes sense that we needed even more space and now we have operations in Lithuania. And even in Latvia, Accenture Baltics brings together people of 38 different nationalities, going beyond borders we're able to attract world-class i.t talent. This is how we create a space for excellence in advanced technologies building robots or teaching machines to think.

00:45 We've used technologies with leading edge processes like DevOps and Agile to design valuable solutions for clients across multiple industries. And since we cross borders of space and thought we have plenty of space to create new value. Our innovation hub is a contributing member of the Accenture global innovation network.

01:09 We work with clients by facilitating their experimentation with emerging technologies like AI digital twins' immersive experiences voice and quantum. I feel that Accenture basics is a space where I belong. Whether I work in a five-person delivery team or am part of a hundred person plus program, my voice matters. Despite the size of the company each person has an impact each person counts.

01:36 Accenture Baltics fosters a space in which I can become the best version of myself professionally and personally. Oh, and the office, it's anywhere and everywhere. It's the unique space we create to expand, excel, innovate and belong. It's the space where I am myself and I am Accenture.

01:55 Together, we can deliver on the promise of technology and human ingenuity!
