

ACCENTURE - DAY IN THE LIFE CONTACT CENTRE – COMPILATION VIDEO TRANSCRIPT

Shruthi:

What I love most about my job is-

Didi:

Talking to people, working with people.

Kurt:

Everyone has an equal opportunity to succeed.

John:

You'll be supported.

Laura:

It is very rewarding.

Leo:

And it's really fun, because one of my passions is definitely helping people.

Shruthi:

Every day, you get to learn.

Saqlain:

I've learned a lot about character-building. I've learned how to be patient.

Bailey:

It helps me enhance my team-building skills.

Fernanda:

I've been able to develop my communication skills greatly.

Bailey:

The culture at the office is very family-based.

Laura:

We always have each other's back.

Fernanda:

There's a lot of guidance.

Didi:

There's so much support.

Shruthi:

You can always reach out to your peers and your superiors.

Saqlain:

That's just the culture that we have here, and that's one of the reasons why I love being where I am.

Bailey:

If I were to describe Accenture in three words, my three words would be family, growth, and opportunity.

Didi:

Support, friendliness, and support. I don't know. Oh my gosh, in three words?

Fernanda:

Partnership, fun, and definitely challenging.

John:

Accommodating, educational, and inspiring.

Laura:

Fun, fast-paced, and rewarding.

Saqlain:

Family, respectful environment, and equality.

Shruthi:

Exciting, challenging, and fun at the same time.

Kurt:

I've never really worked in such a friendly environment that takes you in, no matter what.

Leo:

The company is flexible and very adaptive to changes.

John:

The person who would be a great fit for this role would be someone who is very empathetic.

Fernanda:

Someone that can communicate effectively.

Shruthi:

Who loves learning more about online advertising and who loves challenges.

Saqlain:

And if that's something that you thrive on, then this is 100 percent the role for you.
