

ACCENTURE CES 2023 METAVERSE

VIDEO TRANSCRIPT

Dan script:

Life is moving at ever-faster speeds. What is considered emerging technology today, rapidly becomes an expectation tomorrow.

Today, more than any other time in history, people increasingly expect their physical and digital worlds to seamlessly blend as one.

Now is the time to build value, create strong relationships and shape your tomorrow.

Together, we can grab the reins and lead with innovation. Together we can deliver on what people truly need and desire.

At CES 2023 we'll be discussing the Metaverse and revealing more about how Tomorrow's promise begins today.

Nikki script:

Change is happening at all corners of our world, speed is of the essence, and your enterprise is at the heart of it all.

Now is the time to find new ways of operating, new ways to serve customers, new business models and new growth opportunities.

Now is the time for every part of your enterprise to be transformed by technology, data, automation, and AI.

Now is the time to reinvent to grow, faster.

Together, we can grab the reins and lead with innovation. Together we can deliver on what people truly need and desire.

We'll be revealing more about how you can Lead at the speed of Life at CES 2023, as we discuss Total Enterprise Reinvention.

Jefferson script:

Environmental and societal effects are accelerating in force and impact, with sustainability no longer an option – but an imperative.

People expect businesses to lead responsibly, to build sustainability into their core, and to do it with haste.

Now is the time to take charge and lead with positive change.

Together, we can grab the reins and lead with innovation. Together we can deliver on what people truly need and desire.

We'll be revealing more about you can lead with positive change at CES 2023, as we discuss Responsible Business.
